

Brigadier General Joseph Davis's Brigade*

| Unit                  | EngagedStrength | TotalLoss | PercentageLoss | Killed     | Wounded    | Missing   |
|-----------------------|---------------------|---------------|--------------------|------------|------------|-------------|
| Field&Staff 6         |                     | 1             | 16.7%              | 1          | -0-        | -0-         |
| 2 nd Miss  | 492                 | 232           | 47.2%              | 56         | 176        | -0-         |
| 42 nd Miss | 575                 | 265           | 46.1%              | 75         | 190        | -0-         |
| 55 th NC   | 640                 | 415           | 64.8%              | 74         | 183        | 158         |
| Sub Total      | 1,713        | 913    | 53.6%       | 206 | 549 | 158  |
| 11 th Miss | 592                 | 312           | 52.7%              | 102        | 168        | 42          |
| Total          | 2,305        | 1,225  | 53.1%       | 308 | 717 | 200+ |

Source: Busey and Martin, Regimental Strengths and Losses at Gettysburg (4th Edition)

* Davis's complete Brigade will be in Pickett's Charge on Day 3. Casualties are for both actions

**Most of the regiments reported on killed and wounded. We know that about 200 Confederates were captured in the railroad cut.

Regimental Commanders

2nd Mississippi – Colonel John Stone, wounded

Lt. Colonel David Humphrey, killed

Major John Blair

11th Mississippi – Colonel Francis M. Green

42nd Mississippi – Colonel Hugh R. Miller, mortally wounded

55th North Carolina – Colonel John K. Connally, wounded

Major Alford Belo, wounded